NO FEAR!!

"For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind." – 2 Timothy 1:7 NKJV

The first quarter of this new decade has been an assortment of media-worthy events, but none has captured the attention of the world that the Coronavirus (Covid19) pandemic continues to incite. The daily news is inundated with stories of individuals testing positive for the virus, loss of life, loss of jobs, and restrictions on our freedom to move about. Our lives have been upended by the FEAR of the unknown; fear of testing positive and surviving. We, as believers, must now, more than ever, hold fast to our faith in HE who did not give us the spirit of fear. Hold fast to God, for only HE has the ultimate power over all...including Covid19! Trust God, and have NO FEAR!!

Pastor's Desk Message

"For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind." – 2 Timothy 1:7 NKJV

Greetings First Calvary Family! It's time for another Calvary Chronicle! Thank you to our Chronicle Staff for their tireless efforts to make this publication a reality. We hope each family would read this issue....and make use of this way to connect with the Church and stay informed. It's quite fitting that the theme for this issue of the Chronicle is "NO FEAR". II Timothy 1: 7 states, "For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and a sound mind." I would hope that we are a Body of Faith that does what we do to glorify God. This is especially fitting at this time in our lives and in our Ministry. We cannot be afraid....SHOULD not be afraid, for we have a God that cares for us....that loves us....that protects us. Our safety is in His hands....and He is gracious enough to keep us. We are "at home, STICKING TOGETHER", not stuck at home. We are STRONG, not weak. We are VICTORIOUS, not defeated. We can move forward in FAITH, not fear, and do what we can to continue to Glorify HIM.....to see Him lifted up....to bring souls to HIM!

Hopefully you have joined us....or will join us...and will invite someone to join us....at our First Calvary Baptist Church Ministry weekly Bible Study, Sunday School and Worship services online and streaming. We are grateful for our Church Staff and our Video team that has been making this happen since we entered this season....but I for one can say.... I miss Church! Don't y'all? I miss seeing your faces...hearing your "Amens"...witnessing your worship...praising God TOGETHER. But perhaps that is a positive of this season....we can all be reminded of how important corporate worship is....and when we DO get back together...it's gonna be a great, rejoicing time....so get ready!

As we are in this season, we remind you to continue to reach out to one another. Contact helps us stay connected....and now we have to do it via text messages, Facebook messages, and how 'bout this... phone calls and mail!! Call or text someone.... put a card in the mail....set up a Zoom or Google Duo meeting with some family and friends....REACH OUT....however you do it....check in on one another and make sure that someone is fairing okay as we navigate through this season. We would all be surprised at how much it would mean for someone to just receive a call or text.... “Hey, how you doing?” Make a commitment to reach out to someone...just one person... every day for the rest of this time.

Lastly, I would like to send a thank you to each of you. Thank you for continuing to support this Ministry and Church. Thank you for continuing to sow into First Calvary. We need your gifts in service to the Kingdom....we need your time, talents, and treasures to be effective in Ministry and to make a difference for the Cause of Christ! Your gifts, your talents, your support....it's TIME, TALENTS, AND TREASURES!! Worship with us on Sundays....join us in Sunday School....and Bible Study. Thank you for staying faithful in giving your tithes, either online, snail mail, or quick drop off. I would encourage us to all get ready to get back to service. When this is all over, it will be time for us to get back to Ministry as we know it and we will be looking for everyone to get active in one or more of the many Ministries of this Church. Won't you be ready to be out and about and doing something again? After all this time, I am hopeful we will be. It takes all of us to make this Church grow—even now....not one or two of us....but all of us. So let's all come together and continue to be AN EXCITING CHURCH EXCITED ABOUT ITS MISSION!

Yours in that Blessed Hope,
Pastor Fredrick A. Davis

Overview of the Pastoral Relations and Pastoral Selection Committees

The calling of a Pastor to shepherd God’s People is a spiritual and prayerful endeavor. God already knows who He wants to lead this flock, so it is responsibility, as the Local Body of Christ, to pray and listen until, we hear from God. Leading the efforts to call our next Pastor will be two committees. Members of the committees will be presented to and approved by the congregation.

While the efforts of these committees are confidential, input from the congregation will be sought. And the congregation will be updated periodically. All committee recommendations requiring church action and approval will be brought before the congregation.

Pastoral Relations Committee (PRC)

The Pastoral Relations Committee will lead the pre-search effort specifically developing the guidelines and processes for the search process. The seven-member committee was approved in the July 2019 church conference. Since that time, the PRC has met twice a month. PRC members began its efforts by reading material provided by Pastor Davis from church consultants, Baptist State Conventions and Associations that specialize in assisting churches in the calling of a Pastor.

The PRC has completed the following responsibilities:

1. Reviewed and submitted amendments to our church bylaws. The amendments were approved in the January 8, 2020 church conference. For more information, contact the church office for a copy of the conference minutes.
2. Defined criteria for selecting the 12-member Pastoral Search Committee. Due to the pandemic stay-at-home order, the PRC is coordinating a remote training session for ministries to elect search committee members.
3. Developed guidelines, preliminary timeline and budget (2021-2022) for the Pastoral Search Committee to follow. The PRC will provide these documents to the PSC upon approval in the July 2020 church conference.

Overview of the Pastoral Relations and Pastoral Selection Committees

The PRC committee will dissolve when the search committee is elected.

Pastoral Selection Committee (PSC)

The Pastoral Search Committee will lead the search process and present to the church the individual that God has called to be our Pastor. The 12-member PSC will be made from one representative from the following ministries: Christian Education, Young Adult Ministry, Youth Advisory Council, Senior Missionary, Associate Ministers, Trustee Ministry, Music Ministry, Deacon Ministry, Deaconess Ministry, Visionary Ministry and Usher Ministry. There will also be an at-large member.

The responsibilities of the Pastoral Selection Committee are:

1. Work with Trustee's personnel committee to develop the job description and position posting
2. Review resumes/curriculum vitae
3. Research candidates – writings, on-line sermons, postings, etc. – to develop short list of candidates
4. Interview candidates, conduct background checks and validate references
5. Finalize budget for pastoral search process
6. Schedule visit by candidates to preach and meet the congregation
7. Confidentially visit candidates' current church
8. Vote on the candidate to present to FCBC

The ministry representatives selected to serve on the PSC will be approved by the church during the July church conference (but no later than the October 2020 conference).

ANNUAL HONORING OUR ELDERS LUNCHEON

The Diaconate Ministry of First Calvary Baptist Church hosted the annual Honoring Our Elders Luncheon on Saturday, February 1, 2020, in the church Fellowship Hall. The Fellowship Hall was a sea of red in honor of American Heart Month and the upcoming Valentine's Day Holiday. The theme for this year's program was "Praise and Pray Until Something Happens."

The Welcome was given by Deacon James and Deaconess Cherry Martin. Scripture from James 5:13-16 was read by Deacon Kenny and Deaconess Stephanie Gibbs. Deaconess Marjorie Lipscomb read 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 followed with prayer by Deacon Reginald Lipscomb. Introduction of guests was made by Deacon Calvin and Deaconess Janet Squires. Greetings were given by Deacon Darryll Gadson, while the Purpose for the Occasion was given by Deaconess Cynthia Gadson, who stated that Praise:

- should always follow answered prayer
- should be a lifestyle
- confuses the devil
- Satan is allergic to it
- praise and God will bring you out

Everything that has breath should Praise The Lord!

Of Prayer, we should pray:

- consistently and constantly for a connection
- a praying church is a worshipping church
- give us a praying spirit
- prayer releases us from our confinement

- The things that you pray about are the things that you trust God with.

These statements should sound familiar to our members because Pastor Davis shared them in his sermons during 2019. Our new church theme is “Empowering Disciples with God’s Vision” so...Let’s start 2020 with Praise and Prayer!

Entertainment for the luncheon was provided by Mr. Gene Hoskins, a gospel singer who sang two songs. The Magnificent Expressions of the Spirit, a dance group made up of women 60 years old and above, performed two energetic dances. Dinner was provided by R&B Catering. The Deacons and Deaconesses brought each senior a plate of food consisting of chicken, roast beef, collards, cooked baby carrots and mashed potatoes and gravy, and cornbread was available. Iced tea, lemonade or water was provided upon request. Sherbet and pound cake were served for dessert.

A poem titled “The Difference” was read by Mrs. Dorothy Vance. After the poem, door prizes were given to a number of attendees by Deacon Gregory and Deaconess Trudie Hatcher. Sister Gloria Lindsey gave a response for those who were present. The guests showed their appreciation for the luncheon by a round of applause; thankful for the food, the fellowship, and the honor paid to the group by the Diaconate Ministry.

Closing remarks were made by Pastor Davis and Minister Treyvon Sinclair.

2020 MLK Youth Lock-In

The Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Youth Lock-In, was held for the 27th consecutive year on January 19-20, 2020. This event was an overnight event for youth ages 12-18 and attended by 79 youth from the Durham community.

Throughout the event, youth were exposed to activities that coincided with the principles of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The 2020 MLK, Jr. Youth Lock-In focused on Dr. King’s passion for the arts and how to utilize the arts to engage teens in creating social justice. Youth participated in their choice of three of five sessions: music, spoken word, visual arts, theater, and fashion.

During the opening ceremony of the lock-in, youth were entertained by the following local performers “The Bouncing Bulldogs Champion Jump Rope Team,” “United for Christ Flag and Dance Ministry,” and “Epic Cheer Squad.” Following the opening ceremony, youth participated in interactive sessions. In the fashion session, youth talked about recent social injustices and how they would like to get their message out using t-shirts. In the poetry session, youth listened to poet Tim

Jackson and shared their feelings towards current issues in their community. Also, youth were able to share their poetry written during the session. The theater session allowed youth to act out different scenarios and play a various amount of games as icebreakers.

Later into the night, youth were entertained by participating teens and facilitators with a talent show to showcase singing, poetry and mime. The next morning, teens ate breakfast and boarded buses to attend the Durham Community MLK Steering Committee Unity March and Rally through downtown Durham. As a parting gift of the overnight event, youth were given goodie bags filled with scholarship information provided by the Scholarship Ministry of First Calvary Baptist Church, teen center information provided by MYDurham, and informational survey cards from ENGAGEDurham.

Best COVID-19 Quarantine Guidance: Focus On What You Can Control!

Isn't it amazing how our world has changed since the last time this newsletter was published? In that short period, we experienced a new year and the world shut down because of COVID-19. Such unexpected change can be very unnerving and even scary even when the reason is positive. So, when the reason for the change is as negative as the COVID-19 quarantine, then the unexpected change is likely to be even scarier. The news media has added to the fear by reporting as much bad news about the virus as possible. Add to that, uncertainty about new ways of doing our jobs and even losing our jobs altogether, and we are living in a very scary time indeed.

The Bible tells us that God has not given us a spirit of fear (2 Timothy 1:7). So, what do we do in the face of all of things that cultivate fear? The most frequent guidance that I have been providing is for us to limit our consumption of news media, focus on the things that we can control, and literally leave the rest up to God – as we usually do.

COVID-19 is the most important story of the 21st century thus far. So of course, the news outlets are going to repeat the same stories and sensationalize every death to keep us glued to our screens. The parts that inform us about the science around the virus and the next steps in addressing the virus are important. The rest is meant to scare us into watching news outlets non-stop, lest we miss something, and the lack of information kills us. So, my advice is to limit news consumption to no more than 15 minutes or one article per day.

Things that we can control include complying with “shelter-in-place” orders, making the best of being sheltered in place, without worrying about how long it will last and whatever we might be missing. Our attitude about being quarantined will impact the whole experience for ourselves and our households – whether negative or positive. This is the perfect time to catch up on the rest that we chronically miss while going about our usual schedules.

Although it might be challenging to give any one thing our full focus, this is the perfect time to give some attention to the home cleaning, organizing, and creative projects that we have been meaning to get to for years. This is the perfect time to catch up with loved ones through telephone, text, and videochat. This is the perfect time to get to know the people who live in your house. Dare I say this is the perfect time to learn something new. There are endless possible activities to occupy our mind and our time productively while we keep ourselves safe. Attending to rest and activities which we can control helps to put our minds at ease, which decreases all of the negative consequences of high anxiety and fear – both internal and social.

Just as important as focusing on activities that we can control is the practice of being kind and compassionate to ourselves and others while we all cope as well as we can. Having a daily schedule of activities is a great way to cope. Allowing yourself the flexibility not to meet every element of the schedule is also a great way to cope. Extending the same grace to your household members as they manage their daily schedules is also a great way to cope.

As we move through this period in history, let us be confident in our ability to cope and even thrive. God gives us power, love, and a sound mind instead of fear. So, let's be vigilant about using these gifts.

A HEALTH TIP

Indoor Activities for the Whole Family While at Home

With a few more weeks of “Stay at Home”, here are some family ideas to beat cabin fever:

1. Have a movie marathon. Watch a movie or cartoon that is selected by each person in the family.
2. Make a fort. Use pillows, towels, sheets, and blankets draped across chairs.
3. Do an easy craft. No need to go over the top, just use some construction paper and crayons and let imaginations soar.
4. Make an obstacle course. Use old pillows and toys to set up a quick-and-easy obstacle course in the living room. Just lay out a few instructions for the family to follow.
5. Write letters to relatives. Craft a letter to a grandparent or family member and put it in the mail.
6. Make a simple recipe. Get family involved in the kitchen by working together to prep lunch or dinner, with supervision for children, of course.
7. Do a puzzle. Amazon is chock-full of puzzles for all ages. Prime one to your house and go wild.
8. Get building. Use Legos or building blocks to create a true masterpiece. Go for a more complicated build, like a bridge, and have a lesson on basic physics.
9. Cuddle up with a few books. There's no such thing as too much reading, so carving out an hour to hunker down with a good book is certainly a good idea.
10. Stage an impromptu concert. Have the family to practice a favorite song or dance and have them perform it in a post-dinner talent show.
11. Plan a scavenger hunt. Lay out some clues to hidden treasures around the house.
12. Have a board game night. A tried and true family favorite, getting a little competitive for a few hours will keep boredom at bay.

13. Play a round of indoor games. Have the family burn off some energy by playing a few rounds of LeapFrog, Simon Says, or Red Light, Green Light.
14. Dig up some of those activity books. Have a few puzzle or coloring books laying around you usually reserve for family road trips? Now's the time to break 'em out.
15. Have a mini self-care day. Soak in the tub, apply face masks, manicures and pedicures, and mini massages are all great for relieving stress.
16. Decorate cardboard boxes. Go to town coloring or painting any leftover boxes you have laying around for hours of fun.
17. Print out coloring pages. Low on crafting supplies? No worries. There are plenty of free printable coloring pages online.
18. Put on a play. Have the family create and perform their own creation. Don't forget to dip into the costume box!
19. Game on! Have a Wii or Nintendo Switch in the house? Set up a tournament with a small prize involved to keep things interesting.
20. Make a collage or vision board. Have family members cut out photos and words from magazines or newspapers and stick them to a sturdy piece of paper. They can hang them up in their rooms once their creations are complete!
21. Go on a walk. Remember that touching and climbing on playground equipment should be off-limits right now, but experts say taking a walk or playing outside is perfectly fine.
22. Call a family member or family friend. Have the family call or video-chat a grandparent or close family friend to talk for a few minutes. After all, social distancing doesn't apply to the phone!
23. Make a "Gratitude Jar". Have family members put 3 things in the jar each day....and at the end of the week, read all that your family is thankful for.
24. Read a Bible Story together. Revisit the story of Joseph, Ruth and Naomi, Noah, Creation, Jesus's birth (it's not just for Christmas), and others.
