From the Pastor's Desk —

My beloved members,

For the next two months, October and November, our focus here at the church will be on Stewardship. What is stewardship anyway? When we talk about stewards and stewardship, we are talking about much more than finances — we are talking about life itself. A steward is one whose relationships in every area of life are built upon his acknowledgement that every good and perfect gift is from God. Understanding this, the steward strives to manage them as such, knowing that one day he/she will give an account of his stewardship.

Pastor J. A. Reed, Jr.

As we proceed with our study of stewardship, direct focus will be given to our material possessions, namely our money. Attention is given to this area because for many of us, it is an area of our lives we find difficult surrendering to God. Jesus said that a good barometer of measuring true heart concern is where one's treasure is (Matthew 6:21). A basic principle relating to the work of a faithful steward has always focused upon the manner in which possessions are managed.

No single item in church life receives as much attention as money! Not praying, not preaching, not singing, not even salvation claims the passion with which church practitioners, lay and clergy, pursue the matter of money.

No single item consumes the energy, interest and attention of the pastor, deacon, trustee, and ministries than money. And well it should, for whether we confess it or not, money is an accurate and precise measurement of the health of the Kingdom of God on earth.

If every Christian were an obedient tither and systematic giver, there would be no doubt that the church of God could thrive.

Fairview, what potential for God's people to do God's work!

Think about it!

DO YOU HAVE A PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST?

If you believe in your heart that Jesus Is Lord, the Christ, the Savior, the Son of the Living God, and you are willing to turn from sin to God, then receive Jesus Christ now by faith and pray this prayer:

Lord Jesus I am a sinner.
Forgive me of all my sins, come into my heart and save me.
I do now confess you as my risen Lord.
Thank you Lord Jesus for saving me. AMEN

FAIRVIEW'S FAMILY MONTH

The family is always important but special emphasis is placed on The Family in September. Our theme for the month was WITH GOD FAMILIES CAN WIN, based on Matthew 19:26.

Throughout the month we focused on major sub-groups of the family, i.e. Grandparents, Senior Saints, and Married Couples/ Singles. To culminate the month we concluded with Annual Family Day on the fifth Sunday with our very special guest Evangelist Manuel Scott, Jr. from Los Angeles, CA .

On the first Sunday, Pastor Reed opened this special month with his message “Can the Family Be Saved”? (Mark 10: 6-7)

As the first institution God created, The Family is constantly a target. There must be a strong spirit of commitment in the family to withstand the pressures against it. Society encourages people to commit themselves to nothing. Anything worthwhile will cost you something. Meaningful family life is extremely difficult without commitment. If the family is to be saved, we must inhale the atmosphere of the church and bring Jesus and his ways into our everyday situations.

On the second Sunday, Grandparents were honored with a special tribute from the Sunday School Ministry. From the pre-schoolers to the high schoolers, the special love of grandparents was appreciated. Rev. Derrick Walter brought a word from God from Psalm 121 titled “You Have Help”. God is our Helper, our Protector, our Preserver, and we should follow the example of the Psalmist, and lift up our eyes to the hills . . . Our help comes from the Lord. (See Sunday School article on Page 4 for more details.)

The third Sunday concluded the weekend Marriage Retreat in Gore, Oklahoma (near Lake Tenkiller) where 25 couples were covert agents for successful marriage. The theme, MARRIAGE: MISSION POSSIBLE: Holy Ghost Protocol based on Luke 18: 27, and borrowing from the movie Mission Impossible: Ghost Protocol (See Marriage Retreat article on Page 5 for more details.)

ANNUAL FAMILY DAY

Rev. Manuel Scott, Jr. preached a sermon that all can relate to. His subject was "Issues, Issues, Issues," taken from Mark 5: 25-34.

This scripture tells us of a woman who suffered from constant bleeding for 12 years. She consulted doctor after doctor, spending all of her money seeking a remedy, but instead her condition became worse. Hearing about Jesus, this woman pressed through the crowds of people to get to Him. Her goal was to just touch the hem of His garment to get her healing. She touched Him and was healed immediately.

Seek comfort in knowing that by turning our issues over to Jesus, He will either resolve or dissolve them. Rev. Scott points out three aspects or dimensions this scripture has for everyday life in dealing with our issues. Key factors for us to focus on are:

Dimension One—Internal

Just as the woman in the scripture was bleeding internally, many issues we deal with are internal: (envy, resentment, hatred, jealousy). If these issues remain unchecked, they will turn into more serious issues.

Dimension Two—External

In our story, the woman had external obstacles in terms of the crowds she had to press her way through to get to Jesus. We deal with many external obstacles (family, co-workers, friends, sorority/fraternity, etc.). We will have more issues if we allow people to keep us from getting close to Jesus (verse 27) and touching His garment. Your friends and loved ones can't get you into Heaven, but they can take you to hell.

Dimension Three-Eternal

The woman had faith that a touch from Jesus would heal her. When she touched Him in verse 30, Jesus knew that power had gone out of Him. Touching Jesus in faith equals Power Benefits, which in turn means you will be made whole. Jesus shed His blood for each and everyone of our issues. Have faith and believe. Jesus is a issue resolver and dissolver.

SUNDAY SCHOOL — GRANDPARENTS DAY

A Grandparents Day program was held on September 9, 2012, at 9:15 am. The program began with congregational singing of the hymn Blessed Assurance.

Sister Patti Brown, one of the Assistant Directors, introduced the program by telling of the love showered on us by our Grandparents, and reminding us that their mere presence helps us in understanding life more.

Bro. Curtis Simmons swayed the audience back and forth as he sang the hymn Amazing Grace.

The Preschoolers: (LaRhesa Marsh) Their theme was “Oh, Grandparents” and each child exclaimed with excitement when they said their verse.

Primary ages 6 & 7: (Doris Simmons & Verrell Randolph, Group Leaders) The theme was “I Love my Grandparents Because...”. Each child began by holding up a sign BECAUSE and then stated why they had love for their Grandparent.

Youth ages 8 & 9: (Hattie Marsh & Paula McGlory, Group Leaders) Their theme was “What Grandparents Do.” Each youth talked about all the ways Grandparents support them, i.e. cooking, homework help, etc.

Juniors ages 10 & 11: (Jean Fisher & Phyllis Reece, Group Leaders) Their theme was “Grandparents Bring Warmth.” Each youth said in their own words how they are helped by their Grandparents or others.

Intermediates (Jo Reed, Group Leader) Each young adult spoke in their own words what their Grandparents mean to them.

The Praise Dancer, “In Touch With the Spirit” (Kathleen House, Director) blessed us as they danced with boldness and power to the song “Jesus” by Leandria Johnson.

The Senior Group (Evalia Darling, Group Leader) did a skit entitled “The New Grandma.” This grandma had love for her grandchildren, but also showed she still enjoyed life.

The program finale was Sister Verrell Randolph’s (co-Assistant Director) speech on “What a Great Achievement.” She spoke on why we need our Grandparents to guide us. They help with sickness, money, social injustice and lead us down the Spiritual Road. Grandparents are the Glue of the family.

Sister Randolph gave gift bags to the youngest grandparents. She also recognized Sister Nella Coffey (pianist) and Bro Ron Coffey (Sunday School Director) with a gift bag. Pink Certificates of Achievement were given to each grandparent.

Closing remarks were made by Sister Hattie Marsh, Director, and by Rev. Cleo McGlory. We give thanks to Sister Hattie Marsh, Director, Verrell Randolph and Patti Brown, Co-Assistant Directors, parents and everyone who participated (Youth, Group Leaders and Nella Coffey, pianist.)

SENIOR SAINTS DAY

Sunday, September 23, 2012 was designated as Senior Saints Day at Fairview Baptist Church.

During morning worship service, our Senior Saints were honored with reserved seating and a standing ovation as we expressed our love and appreciation to each of them. Our special guest, Reverend Leroy Cole, Pastor of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Tulsa, OK, was the preacher of the hour. He preached a very powerful sermon, "Running to Win." The scripture came from Hebrews 12:1-3.

Pastor Cole used the recent Olympics as an analogy and the current fastest man, Husein Bolt of Jamaica as an example. Bolt came in 2nd in a pre-qualifying heat prior to the Olympics and cited the reason for the loss was extra body weight.

As a Christian runner we have to lay aside each weight. There are weights of unbelief and un-forgiveness. Sometimes, physical and spiritual obstacles get in our way. Our goal is to run a race of faith and not a race of competition. Pastor Cole told us that only the faithful can run and win. Senior Saints are faithful and teach us how to run and win.

The celebration concluded with a delicious meal prepared for our Senior Saints by our Culinary Ministry, led by Sister Willa June Nero.

We truly thank God for our Senior Saints. We appreciate their leadership, their love, and their encouragement that they give to us.

MARRIAGE RETREAT

ON THE WEEKEND OF SEPTEMBER 14-16, the Fairview Marriage Ministry had its 9th Annual Marriage Retreat at Fin and Feather Resort in Gore, Oklahoma. The event theme was “Marriage: Mission Possible” (M:P:9), a play on the Mission Impossible movie and TV show. Our scripture message came from Luke: 18-27 “What is impossible for man, is possible with God.”

The retreat kicked off at Fairview in the Fellowship Hall with a great breakfast followed by an amateur video starring Larry and Cora Epps. It continued with a quick skit which starred some of our newlyweds, Ahmad and Sara Kennedy along with Lanita Harris. They did a fantastic job assisting us by enlisting all 25 couples as M:P:9 agents with a mission to exhibit what a Christian marriage should look like. Everyone had fun with their first mission to “interrogate” and introduce another couple they had been assigned to. There were some pretty interesting facts we discovered about some of the couples.

Next, the keeping-it-real teaching sessions began as Pastor Tony Rhone and Sister LaShai Rhone separated the men and women and got busy instructing us on Spiritual Oneness. This was followed by a joint session which we had some great dialogue on the subject.

Then it was time to serve lunch and prepare for the two-hour drive to Fin and Feather to continue our learning and to fellowshiping with our spouses and other couples. The main purpose of the retreat was to provide our married couples an opportunity to learn how a Godly marriage should function, but also a chance to relax and enjoy the company of some wonderful individuals.

Arriving at Fin and Feather Resort at about 4:00 pm, we checked into our houses, cabins, hotel rooms, and Lakeside suite. The staff was extremely friendly and accommodating and we could easily tell the resort was owned and operated by a Christian family. Being away from the city and in this rustic environment gave us a sense of calm and peace. It felt like getting back to a simpler time in life where you could just put your feet up and chill out.

The teaching continued later that evening with three sessions. Our second set of facilitators, Pastor Chester and Sister Regina West, kicked off the evening discussing “Blended Families.” After that, the Rhones were back up to teach us on Communication Clarity/Effectiveness. Then the Wests closed out our Friday evening on the sizzling topic of Sexual Satisfaction. Throughout the evening sessions we gave away door prizes and played the Newlywed Game with every couple participating. Our co-winners were Pastor and Sister Reed along with Tony and Clotiel Howard, both with correct answers to all ten questions. We made a special gift presentation to our two newest Marriage Ministry couples, the Kennedys and the Harris’s. We adjourned for the night to our rooms and hung out until everyone got sleepy and went to bed.

Saturday morning started off with a delicious breakfast buffet in the restaurant or with leftovers we brought with us from our Friday session. The Wests delivered another great message on “How to Handle Your Mission,” focusing on the mission being a successful Christian marriage.

There was no drop in enthusiasm as Pastor Derrick and Sister Shree Walter laid out a compelling agreement on “Why Divorce is NOT an Option.” The engagement by the couples during these morning sessions was refreshing and enlightening as there was a lot of dialogue back and forth, causing us to go almost two hours past the time we set but no one cared.

The afternoon was filled with plenty of free time to take in a hike, go for a drive down to the lake or into town, hang out at the soda shop at the facility, or just relax, talk, or watch movies.

In our night session we discussed “Financial Confidence.” lead by the Epps’ and dressed up in cowboy attire. Gifts for the two best dressed couples (The Fields and Hunts) were awarded as well as more prizes were raffled off. We ensured that every couple took home a gift bag or box that included a restaurant gift card.

We want to sincerely thank all of the couples that attended representing Fairview, along with our regular four to five couples from Killeen, Texas, lead by Earl and Debra Kennedy, Rev. and Sister Shaw from Emmanuel Baptist, the Hunt’s two daughters and spouses representing Greater Bethel and the Wallaces from Evangelistic.

Special thanks goes to James and Tee Tobler, Ted and Kim Curtis, Lonnie and Rosie Hunt, Bobby and Cathey Thompson, Ahmad and Sara Kennedy, Lanita Harris, Earl and Debra Kennedy, Ola Reed for homemade biscuits, and the awesome kitchen staff lead by Willa June Nero. They helped us maximize our food budget.

Cora and I are honored to have been entrusted by Pastor to head the Marriage Ministry and we ask you to pray with us that more of Fairview’s couples will participate in helping all of our marriages get the support and encouragement we need.

We welcome your ideas.

Prayer Ministry

Psalm 74: 10, 20-23

Oh God, how long shall the adversary reproach? Shall the enemy blaspheme thy Holy Name forever?

The Israelites had prayed to God to remember His covenant with them and to come and see the destructive spirit present in the sanctuary and the desecration of the Temple. The Psalmist is wondering how long will God allow the disrespect, criticism, mumbling, complaining and unholy mocking to continue on. The Psalmist called on God to arise and fight against the enemy to extend His right hand to protect and deliver the people just as He did during the Exodus out of Egypt.

Remember the scripture John 15:12 that we love one another as I have loved you. Yes, this is God's command. Yet this solemn agreement, this very pledge is a vow, a promise, an oath, a bond, a pact, a treaty or even a contract that we were once faithful to is slowly becoming the waste place of our own habitation.

Have you ever said "Woe is me?" or "Oh God, how long are you going to let them get away with this?" Do you hear the cry for help or even see the pain? Often our eyes are wide open to the discord in our own house of worship, but our mouths are cemented shut! Remember no prayer, no change.

So let me guess. You probably have not prayed about it, or if you did, let me ask you what kind of prayer was it?

In all circumstances surrounding us, we must remember our enemies are of a spiritual matter. Let's keep it real and focus on the truth. Don't get caught up in deception.

The unspiritual aggressor is probably a sinner saved by grace, and in need of deliverance from their faults, sins and short comings just like our own. So separate the sin of that person from the sinner. (*forgiveness is easier that way*)

Much of our time is wasted, energy consumed and injury is brought into being because we squandered ourselves by battling flesh and blood instead of spiritual wickedness.

So in the process of attempting to wrestle each other into defeat, we totally loose our focus and allow the flesh to distract the enemy, power and strength we have in spiritual warfare. This brings us down. The division and discord hurts our families, churches, work places as well as our community.

If we start fighting others, they will certainly be obliged to fight us back. This allows the devil to defeat us with his own schemes. Whatever you face hence forth, make up your mind how to handle conflict. Satan is still our enemy, but sin within us is our challenge and battle.

Remember to humble yourselves and pray. As we surrender ourselves to the obedience of God's love, make war in prayer and peace with those around us. A house divided is a weak link that cannot stand strong in the time of trial.

We Pray, We Stand, We Conquer

As disciples of our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ, we often ask our Great God to rise up and defend us during our time of troubles.

We thank God for allowing our Lord and Savior to stand up for us and defeat our enemies. Christ has paid the price we could not pay. Now we have peace with God, for God has risen up against anything that would defy Him.

SINCERELY GOD'S SERVANTS - WALTER & GAIL ELLISON

MEN'S MINISTRY CORNER

Once more, we greet you in the Eternal Name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ. Time again, to report the news from our Men's Ministry.

It's time to once again feed the masses in our Annual Church Supper/Fish Fry. We call on every man of the Fairview Church Family to please support us by paying $25.00 to participate. Not only does this entitle you to join with us, but every member of your household family (regardless of the number) to participate with us.

The evening of October 16 is the designated date. We will begin serving you at 7:00 PM. Our prayer and plea is that after you have paid the asked for fee, you will be there in the Fellowship Hall, on time, so that we can begin to serve you at the stated hour.

We are preparing an extensive menu for you and we promise you that once again the food will be palatable and plentiful. Please see Bros. James Tobler and Dedrick Marsh with you money today. If you cannot locate either of them, please see me and I shall be happy to get the money to the right place.

A reminder that Wednesday, October 10, is the day of our regularly scheduled Ministry meeting. We shall meet at 6:00 PM in the Fellowship Hall. I pray mightily that many of you will join with the faithful few of us who assemble ourselves together in fellowship. Rev. McGlory will have a special Bible message prepared, tailored to your needs. Additional details will be forthcoming on the Annual Church Supper/Fish Fry during that meeting.

The Singing Churchmen once again extends an invitation to those of you who can make a "joyful noise" unto the Lord to join us, as we continue to lift our voice in praise to our Lord and Saviour. We have room for you and you will receive a blessing from doing that which the Lord has gifted you with talent to do. We will be busy from now until the end of the year and it's especially incumbent upon you to assist us.

Our scheduled practice date and time is each 1st and 3rd

Mondays of the month at 7:30 PM. Sometimes it's necessary to have unscheduled rehearsals. When those times occur, you will be notified of the same.

Brethren, let us continue to remember to pray for each other. We ask that you remember those who are in need of healing blessings, financial blessings, and other spiritual blessings. My Bible tells me that, "The effectual prayers of a righteous man, availeth much." I ask that you pray for me and ask God to allow me to be more faithful in service to Him and as leader of the Fairview Men's Ministry.

We are coming into the time of year that we set aside a special date to thank God for his abundant blessings, and to Celebrate the birth of His Son, Jesus Christ. Let us be mindful that it is never about us, but about Him who hung, bled, and died out on Calvary's Cross so that we all might have access to the tree of life, and have it more abundantly.

Scripture for the month: Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations. Psalms 100:4-5

Moving Up Higher

One thing I've learned in my life is that God likes to outdo himself. His dream for your life is so much bigger than your own. His ways are higher, and he has an appointed time of favor for your life. He is going to take you places that you never thought possible. He is going to open up doors that you never have imagined. He's going to bring talent out of you that you didn't even know you had. This is the time to get excited about your future! It's time to get your hopes up because you have been chosen by the Creator of the universe. Your destiny is not determined by the economy, how you were raised, or your education. Your destiny is determined by Almighty God.

Today I want to encourage you to set your thoughts on things above. It's time for you to move up higher to a new level. The good news is that God has already laid out victory before you. I declare that in the days ahead you're going to stumble into it. Get ready because God is going to raise you up into the life of blessing he has prepared for you!

In Loving Memory

Mildred J. Brewer

June 13, 1942–July 29, 2012
Homegoing Celebration–August 4, 2012

“As for me, my life has already been poured out as an offering to God. The time of my death is near. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful. And now the prize awaits me—the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of his return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to his appearing.” (II Timothy 4:6-8)

Sister Mildred united with Fairview Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor S. S. Fairly. She served faithfully under Dr. Fairly and current Pastor J. A. Reed, Jr. for over 50 years.

Ms. Brewer served in many capacities at Fairview, always offering to help where she was needed. She served as a Deaconess, Usher, Choir member and on other ad hoc committees at the church. During the last years of her life, she continued to be at her appointed Ministry meetings and do Ministry work, in spite of her failing health. She moved quietly about and did what she could, always greeting you with a smile and a hug.

Mildred was a giving person that believed in helping others. She worked in the healthcare field for many years, as well as other areas of service.

She fought a good fight; she kept the faith. Although Sister Mildred is no longer with us, she left us with the memories a committed servant through the faith she displayed. We, too, live and look forward to that blessed hope, knowing that in the end, there is a prize that awaits us. We will be liberated from bondage and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God!

Myrtle M. Holloway

April 4, 1917–August 19, 2012
Homegoing Celebration–August 25, 2012

“Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.” (Isaiah 40:29-31)

Myrtle M. Holloway was born in Newalla, Oklahoma, the second of four children. She united with Fairview at the age of 12, under the leadership of Pastor J. D. Provo.

Sister Holloway's service at Fairview, with the exception of the years she served with her husband in his ministry work, continued until the day of her homegoing.

Mama Holloway gave a piece of herself to all that came in contact with her. Her life's work at Fairview was dedicated to the children. Each child that grew up at Fairview during her tenure at some time was under the covering of Mama Holloway. She raised many in the nursery, singing to them, holding them, reading to them, etc. She trained children and youth in the GAs, RAs, BTU, Sunday School, and her daily walk. She loved and encouraged. Those that came to Fairview in adulthood had the benefit of her wisdom in teaching them the virtue of patience in working with their children and loving mankind. Sister Holloway also worked with the Women's Ministry and Deaconess. Her last lesson was given on the day of her departure—the lesson of faithfulness.

All that knew her have their own story to tell of the impact Mother Holloway made on their life. “Well done, good and faithful servant. Well done!”
