SAMPLE NOMINATION

Date: 1 October 2012

Award: Man of the Year Award Nomination

Nominee: Brother John Doe

Nominator: Sister Jane Doe, President Willing Workers

Telephone #: (404) 111-222-3333

Nomination Statement: (One from each nominator)

1. Relationship to Nominee

I have known nominee for (period of time). Having grown up with him, I can attest to every aspect of his character, from nursery school to marriage, to fatherhood. Not bragging, but he has been a brother like no other, friend like no other, father like no other, and husband like no other. So much so, that I am proud that he is my brother. Aside from my personal relationship to him, I have watched him grow from a child to a man who is now focused on his relationship with GOD, his wife, his children, and his church.

2. Focus of Service

Most members in the church know (Nominee) in the same capacity, e.g., brother to Jane, and brother in law to James. However, he is much more. He has dedicated himself to GOD, Fountain of Faith, the Usher Board, and Sunday school. He often cites the Fountain and its auxiliaries and ministries as his maturation fountain. Beyond (Nominee), there are very few that I can point to with an equal commitment to service. He is truly the measure of a man focused on spiritual maturity and the desire to serve. Nominee has served on the Usher Board for 9 years, having served as its Sergeant-At-Arms, Vice President and/or President. He was instrumental in developing an operational training handbook for new ushers and is an active participant in new usher training. He is an active member and participant in the Adult Sunday School, rarely missing a Sunday.

3. Impact of Service

Adults need role models, too. Certainly, the hard work (nominee) has put into the Usher Board and the Sunday school has set him aside as one dedicated and committed to his ministries. But his presence and demonstrated abilities also set him apart as a candidate for Man of the Year. For this reason, I nominate (nominee) because he exemplifies the enduring satisfaction that service and maturation in Christ can bring.

Nomination Statement:

1. Relationship to Nominee

I have known nominee for (period of time). Having (known/grown up/worked with/watched him, I can attest to every aspect of his character, from our initial meeting/high school/college/marriage. Without bragging, he has been a brother like no other, friend like no other, father like no other, or husband like no other. So much so, that I am exceedingly proud to call him my friend/husband/brother/father/uncle/cousin/etc. Aside from my personal relationship to him, I have watched him grow spiritually to become a man who is now focused on his relationship with GOD, his wife, his children, and his church.

2. Focus of Service

Most members in the church know (Nominee) in the same capacity, e.g., brother to Jane, and brother in law to James. He has been a member at the Fountain for 18 years. However, he is much more. He has dedicated himself to service to GOD, the Fountain of Faith, the Usher Board, and/or Sunday school. He often cites the Fountain and its auxiliaries and ministries as his maturation fountain. Beyond (Nominee), there are very few that I can point to with an equal commitment to service. He is truly the measure of a man focused on spiritual maturity and the desire to serve others. For the past 11 years, (Nominee) served on the Prison Ministry and Usher Board. Prior to these ministries, (Nominee) served on the Trustee Board, Audio Visual Ministry and Men of Faith as their Vice President from 1994 to 1996. He was instrumental in training new members joining the Prison ministry on the nuances for prison ministry and now serves as a primary trainer for the Usher Board. Always looking to improve his walk with the Lord, (Nominee) is and has been an active member and participant in the Adult Sunday School, rarely missing a Sunday.

3. Impact of Service

Adults need role models, too. Certainly, the hard work (nominee) has put in on the ministries on which he has worked, has set him aside as one dedicated and committed to his ministries. But his presence and demonstrated abilities also set him apart as a candidate for Dr. Rudolph Berthoud Heritage Award. For this reason, I nominate (nominee) because he exemplifies the lifelong satisfaction that service and maturation in Christ can bring.
