

WELCOME

When a person's makeup is applied so amazingly that it makes them look truly stunning, we say their face is "beat" or "beat for the Gods!!!" In the King's English, we are acknowledging a successful makeover because a person's face looks totally different. We sit and go through the process, regardless of the time, because we know in the end we will be beautifully transformed.

Some of us need to have our lives "beat" or experience a makeover. Turn the mirror on your life: Are your finances in shambles? Is your health spiraling out of control? Are you in and out of relationships with a different face? You need a makeover!

Attend the ReNu You Makeover Weekend & begin your transformation. Learn how to sit with God and apply practical steps to a specific area of your life that needs a makeover. It won't be an easy process, but it will be worth it. "Then, when you look in the mirror, you will see God in your reflection and say, 'my life has been beat for God's glory.' I have experienced a makeover. I don't look the same!"
